

KnockOut Remote Participant Instructions

Overview

If you're participating in the KnockOut event remotely, you must have or create a Google+ account. This is required to watch the KnockOut action, interact with participants and the PSCU Innovation team, as well as collaborate with your team. Because of participant limits in Google+ hangouts, you must monitor the action on the KnockOut page so you don't miss your turn to present.

Note: To get the most out of the Google+ experience, it's best to have a webcam and microphone.

Before You Begin

You must have an existing Google account to create a Google+ profile.

- Google+ works with Google accounts that have an active Google profile
- Google apps accounts are not supported.

How to Create a Google+ Account

1. Go to www.google.com
2. Click +You in the upper left hand corner of the page
 - a. If you have a Google account, click Sign In button and enter your Google account information, then skip to Step 4
 - b. If you don't have Google account, click the Create an Account link, then continue to Step 3.
3. Complete all required fields on the right hand side of the page
4. Create your profile

Participating and Collaborating

After you've created an account, add PSCUKnockOut to one of your Circles.

1. Enter PSCUKnockOut in the search bar
2. Click the Add to Circle button

You're all set to join the KnockOut event remotely. On the right hand side of the page, you'll find options to chat with others and start a hangout session for collaboration.

Here are some highlights of what you can do:

- Attend hangouts

Note: Hangouts are limited to 10 participants at a time

- Share with other PSCUKnockOut members
- Chat with other PSCUKnockOut members
- Be added to circles of other PSCUKnockOut members
- Add other PSCUKnockOut members to your circles
 - The names of the circles are not shared
- Have other PSCUKnockOut members appear on your public profile
